HASTINGS

Hastings is an historic town on the picturesque south coast of England, set between rolling green hills and the beautiful seaside. Famous for the Battle of Hastings in 1066, Hastings is now a lively place where the hustle and bustle of modern life sits perfectly alongside old English traditions - making it the ideal place to experience the British way of life.
International high school students who choose to live in Hastings will have a wealth of things to do in their spare time including enjoying clifftop views, stunning beaches and hidden caves, dining out in popular restaurants, shopping in local boutiques and exploring ancient castles.

MUSIC, PERFORMING ARTS & SPORTS ACADEMIES

East Sussex College offers a range of excellent sporting opportunities. Talented students can apply to join the Football Academy, Netball Academy or Rugby Academy and receive professional coaching and weekly training alongside their studies. The college is also home to the East Sussex Academy of Music, where instrumental lessons and working with professional musicians is on offer, and the Performing Arts Academy, where staff with a wide range of industry experience and academic knowledge prepare students for a career in Dance, Drama, Musical Theatre or Production.
