“Excellent school just 5 miles outside Greater London”

The A Level and BTEC results at The Howard of Effingham School are amongst the best in the country, demonstrating their exceptional commitment to high quality teaching. With small class sizes at Sixth Form level, they aim to provide a tailored approach to each student. Developing independence is a central focus and many aspects of Sixth Form life are coordinated by the Student Council, allowing students to grow and develop with the knowledge that support is never far away.

Nestled in the picturesque county of Surrey, Effingham exudes quintessential English charm. Whilst the town itself offers an escape from the bustle of city life, Guildford and London are within easy reach to explore at the weekends.
